T. B. MURRAYIt Was Conducted By Lodge and Soldiery.A soldier's funeral was given yesterday afternoon to the remains of Capt. T. B. Murray, and when the casket was lowered into the grave in Nuuanu cemetery, three volleys were fired over it and the buglers blew "Taps," the soldier's last call in death.
The dead comrade, who had been an officer in the First Regiment of the National Guard of Hawaii for so many years, was honored by the Territorial troops, a hundred of them marching in the procession which led from Harmony Hall to the cemetery.There was a large concourse of people gathered, both in the lodge hall and on the streets, to witness the last sad journey of the once genial "Tim," and the large body of troops under arms, headed by the Hawaiian Government Band, showed that old comrades were as constant as in the days long ago when they faced danger together.Services were conducted in the lodge room of Harmony Hall, under the auspices of Harmony Lodge No. 3, of which the deceased had been a member. The simple ritual of the Odd Fellows was read, followed by the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee," by a choir from the Rebekah lodges.
The members of the family were present. The two youngest daughters were overcome with grief, and their continual calls for the father that had been, caused the tears to well up in the eyes of every one present. The casket was surrounded during the service by a special military guard of honor of four privates, the officers of the First Regiment standing near by. The casket was taken from the hall to the hearse by the pallbearers, who were Capt. Paul Smith, Captain Reilly, Captain Hipsa, Captain Rose, Captain Klemme and Captain Gonsalves. These walked beside the car to the cemetery.
The procession was in charge of C. J.
Fishel, Past Noble Grand of the lodge, and H. McKechnie, present Noble Grand. The Government Band and a company of soldiers, nearly 100 strong, from all the companies of the regiment, under command of Capt. Sam Johnson, Lieutenants Thompson and Nakuina, were drawn up on the opposite side of the street. The band played a dirge while the ladies of Rebekah Lodge and the members of the family were entering carriages, and the grand marshal was making ready for the start. The procession was in line as follows:Band.
Drum and Bugle Corps.
Company H, Captain Murray's old company.
Pacific and Rebekah lodges, in carriages.
Harmony Lodge.
Hearse with honorary pallbearers, family.
N. G. H. officers, in wagonettes.
Among the officers present were Adjutant General Soper, Major Zeigler, Major Canara, Captain Wall, Captain Schaefer, Captain Paul Smith, Captain Gonsalves, Captain Rose, Captain Reilly, Captain Klemme, Lieutenants Smith, Carlyle, Moore, Gorman and Boyer.
Among the large number of floral tributes was a handsome pillow of red and white carnations, which bore in outlines of flowers the inscription, "Co.
H."LAKE PICNICKED AT POLICE STATIONColonel "African Central Committee" Lake, friend of the concentrated Boers and promoter of new and strange athletic contests, in which the alleged guerrillas were a sewing machine, a piano, a horse and harness and other trifles, picnicked last evening in the court yard of the police station.Yesterday afternoon when the rumor of the "Colonel's" arrest got noised abroad there was an expression of general satisfaction on the street corners and in the cafes, for it was thought that he had been brought to book for his share in the gigantic picnic swindle perpetrated at Kalia last Saturday.Such was not the case, however. The "Colonel" was wanted on another charge, that of having swindled a woman out of $35 by falsely representing himself to be the agent of Dr. McGrew, and as such authorized to collect rent due him.It is alleged that on the first of February Lake collected a month's rental by false representation from Miss Willard, who resides in one of Dr. McGrew's cottages on Beretania street.
The promoter of bogus picnics was arrested yesterday afternoon at Kalia, where he was calmly superintending the removal of such lumber from the old brewery grounds as the frate and bunced crowd overlooked last Saturday.Yesterday's arrests included: Cosar Garcia, vagrancy; Ah Sang, bench warrant; Ah Kin, larceny second degree; Mitotokonaga, cruelty to animals; Peter Larsen, drunkenness; J. W.
Lake, gross cheat; J. Carey, assault and battery with weapon; Hoo (w), Kallio (w), affray; Pae assault and battery on Mrs. Pae; Keola, assault and battery on Keola (w); Mimio Kahua, profanity.GLENNER'S AID SOCIETY.Arrangements Being Made for the Annual Lawn Party.The Glenners' Aid Society of Central Union Church held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the residence of Miss Julia Damon, about fifty members being present. The meetings have been growing more popular every month, and the membership has been growing steadily since the reorganization several months ago, when the older members dropped out and gave over the reins of authority to the younger element. The girls have taken hold of the society in earnest.
Mrs. C. L. Hyde delighted the society by a paper which she read on "Houses of Royalty" which she visited on her recent tour of Europe.
The society is making preparations for its annual lawn party, which will be given in May. It has not yet been decided where the affair will be given.Richard Croker's big farm at Waikiki will supply milk and butter to the London market.PACIFIC IMPORT CO.*Our
